Newsletter – April 2014

With the closure of the HRW Antiques showroom in Chelsea Harbour Design Centre, we have returned the lighting to our workshops in Kent and in our office we currently have a fantastic range hanging above our heads! If ever you would like to see them in person then please feel free to visit, for now, I can show you just a few of the items we have.

CS 1872 - 14lt Antique Perry chandelier, with traditional “step” cutting. Arranged on two tiers with solid lead crystal S arms and kick arms. Dressed with round double pointed buttons and cut crystal pear pendants.

CS 1800 - A late 19th century crystal chandelier by F&C Osler (OF1430). 10 arms arranged on two tiers with a further row of serpent arms above. Dressed in link pear drops, with original silver plated metalwork.

CS1881 - 6lt reproduction Perry chandelier. Rope twist arms are dressed with round buttons, pointed on each side, with pear shaped pendant. The solid brass metalwork is silver plated and clear lacquered.

CS 1807 - Osler & Faraday reproduction 2 branch brass wall light. Supplied in any finish and wired with either French candles as illustrated or lamp holders with card candle tubes.

CS 1871 - 10 light moulded Georgian style chandelier made in grey tinted English lead crystal with hand cut crystal drops. Inspired by an original that hung in the Gdansk Museum.

CS1879 - Large circular solid cast brass lantern in gold lacquered finish with 3 internal lights. Available in 4 sizes.
